Whitbread PLC has received a vote of more than 20% against resolution 9 to re-elect Sir Ian Cheshire as a non executive director. The Board has discussed the reasons for this vote with a number of shareholders and understands that it is a result of Sir Ian Cheshire only attending 8 out of the 10 scheduled annual Board meetings and missing an unscheduled meeting that was called at short notice. We can confirm that Sir Ian Cheshire has attended every Board meeting in the current year and has no planned absences. Sir Ian is a strong contributor to the Whitbread Board with a good attendance record over his five year tenure.
